Ce mois-ci This month

Comme le mois dernier, je n' ai quasiment fait que de dessiner les planches du «Soleil des Mages» durant décembre. Je vous met presque tout, mis à part les douze dernières pages, afin de vous obliger de sortir quelques instants de la torpeur des présidentielles françaises et de lire mon livre quand il sortira, en mars si tout va bien.

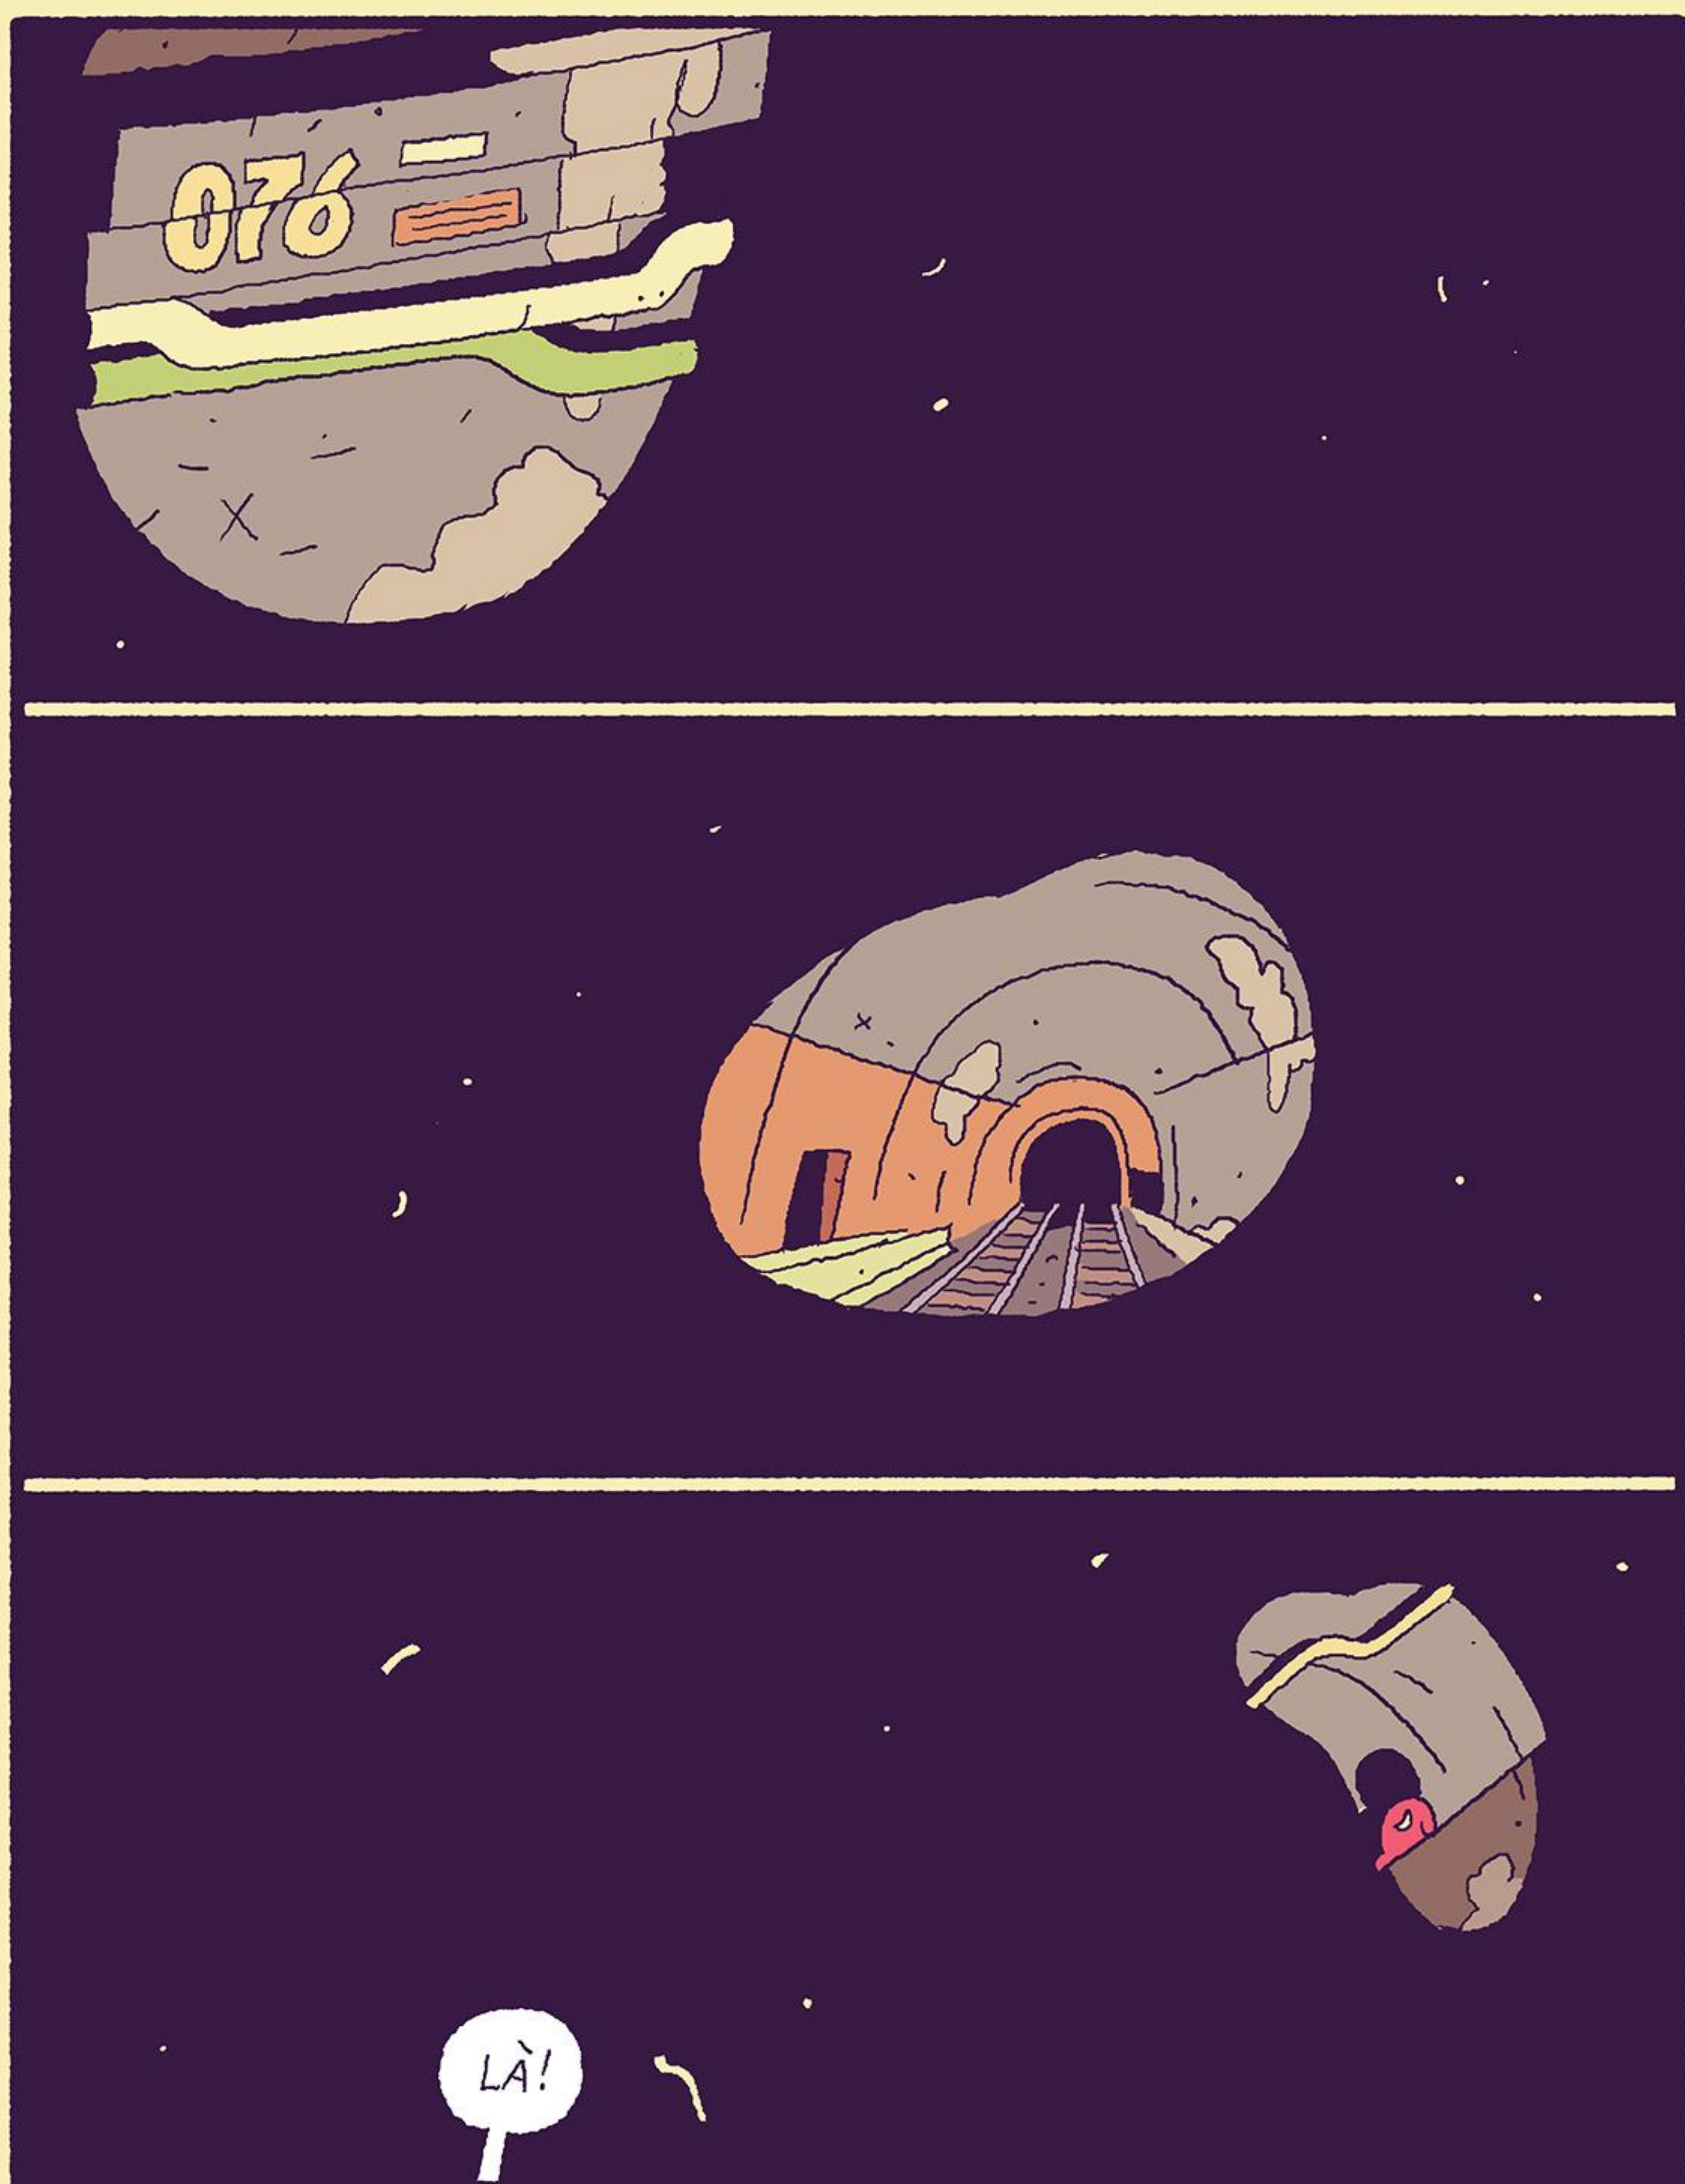

Like last month, I have almost only drawn pages of «The Sun of the Mages» during December. I show you almost everything, apart from the last twelve pages, in order to force you to take a few moments out of the torpor of French presidential elections and to read my book (which will be in french) when it will be released in March if all goes well. I will try to find an English editor in the future, promised sworn.

Aussi, avec Marie Spénale, on a fait ce très beau fanzine de notre manga «Star Delivery». Il n'est disponible part actuellement mais j'avais envie de vous le montrer, surtout que Marie a vraiment fait de bonnes photos.

Also, with Marie Spénale, we made this very beautiful fanzine of our manga «Star Delivery». It's not available anywhere for now, but I wanted to show it to you, especially since Marie took really good photos.
